HAZED FOR A SMILE.

Midshipman's Breach Made Pretext for Luring to Torture Room.

Annapolis, Md., Jan. 4 .- The presecution in the court martial proceedings against Midshipman Stephen Decatur, Ir., who is accused of hating Fourth Classmen Isano N. McCrary and Gaylord Church, scored heavily when Decatur was forced to admit that although he had ordered Church to his (Decatur's) room to be reprimended for smling in the ranks, he did not reprimend him for this breach of academy discipline, but from four ham sandwiches brought in The regular monthly business meeting to be hazed. The case will be given to and social of the Y. P. C. U. of the the court by night.

Universalist church will be held in the Decatur is accused of compelling.

Decatur is accused of Church to perform "Np. 16," or "the leaning rest," a usual form of hazing. Church testified to this and Decatur admitted that he had ordered Church to come to his room and that someone in his presence had ordered Church to perform as specified. He denied, however, that he gave the order. Counsel for the defense will urge that, under the act of 1874, active participation in hazing must be proved to support the charge.

The prosecution contends, however, that the admissions, coupled with the testimony of First Classman . B. Mar-zoni, to the same effect, are sufficient te support the charge of hazing, par-ticularly as Decatur was the ranking
